

News Release

Contact: Lisa Strasser
(203) 642-4958

Insight Catastrophe Group Launches New Specialty Program Division Thomas Harms Named Head of Insight Specialty Programs

New York, NY, May 20, 2009 – Insight Catastrophe Group, an insurance program manager and risk advisor specializing in property risk, today announced the launch of Insight Specialty Programs, LLC, a new division that will provide identity theft programs to personal and commercial lines insurance carriers.

Led by Mr. Thomas Harms, Insight Specialty Programs will offer two supplemental covers – a personal lines product designed to protect a named insured and immediate family and a corporate product to protect business owners, employees and the business itself.

“Identity theft is a catastrophic exposure for corporations entrusted with sensitive data and can be equally devastating to individuals,” said Andrew DiLoreto, chief executive officer of Insight Catastrophe Group. “The launch of Insight Specialty Programs continues our commitment to helping insurance carriers, businesses and individuals with the most challenging insurance exposures.”

Insight’s personal program includes coverage for identity recovery, expense reimbursement and identity monitoring. The corporate program encompasses data security, corporate identity protection, cyber liability coverage, breach remediation services and coverage for individual owners and employees.

“Both of our programs address all types of identity theft detected to date,” said Mr. Harms. “This extensive coverage combined with the ease of implementation and administration that Insight is known for, provides insurance carriers with a unique, turn-key program that expands their current offerings.”

Mr. Harms recently joined Insight as senior vice president of Insight Specialty Programs. He was previously senior vice president at Aon Benfield’s program division. Prior to that, he was senior vice president at Braishfield Associates. Mr. Harms also served as senior vice president at Ardent Risk

Services. He began his career at Alexander Re. Mr. Harms holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Pace University.

In addition to focusing on identity theft, Mr. Harms will work with MGAs, associations and affinity groups to find issuing carriers and create new programs.

“We are thrilled that Tom has joined Insight to lead this important initiative,” DiLoreto added. “With more than 35 years experience, his track record of creating new specialty programs and working with MGAs, associations and affinity groups will help us build a premier specialty operation.”

#

About Insight Catastrophe Group

Insight Catastrophe Group is an insurance program manager and risk advisor. Specializing in property risk, specifically natural catastrophe perils, Insight is dedicated to assisting its clients in achieving superior risk-adjusted returns. Its clients include insurance and reinsurance companies, agents, brokers and other insurance-related entities. With offices in New York, Tallahassee and Tampa, Insight Catastrophe Group includes Insight Catastrophe Solutions, LLC, Coastal Risk Underwriters, LLC and Insight Specialty Programs, LLC. Additional information may be found on its Web site at www.icg.com.

About Insight Specialty Programs

Insight Specialty Programs, LLC (ISP) works with personal and commercial lines carriers to provide specialty insurance programs, with an emphasis on identity theft and cyber liability. ISP also works with managing general agents to place specialty programs. ISP is a member company of Insight Catastrophe Group and is located in New York. Additional information can be found at www.icg.com.